

How to report your absence online

The first step in reporting an absence is knowing when to report. Given the multiple benefits that can cover your absence, there are a few rules of thumb:

- Report your claim up to 30 days in advance of a planned absence
- For an unplanned absence, report as soon as you're aware that you'll be absent for 0 consecutive days for a disability or 0 or more consecutive days for other leave reasons.

To help make the process as fast and easy as possible, you can report your claim through our self-service benefits website, MyLincolnPortal.com.

Your company provides these benefits through Lincoln:

- STD
- FMLA

When you submit, your claims specialist will review all benefits that may apply.

Our secure five-step process:

- 1 Log in to MyLincolnPortal.com.
First-time users will need to register using our company code CokeFL.
- 2 Select Start a Claim or Leave and answer a few questions.
 - About you: You'll need your employee identification number or other ID as required by your employer.
 - About your absence: Include the reason for your absence, dates of absence, and, if applicable, physician diagnosis information.
- 3 Click Submit.
For disability claims, you'll be asked to download, sign, and submit a medical authorization form to send to your doctor.
- 4 You'll need your claim or leave number to view your status for the first time. A PDF of the information you submitted will be available, for you to easily save to your records.
- 5 Check the status of your claim online at MyLincolnPortal.com.
You can also opt in to text messaging via MyLincolnPortal.com. You'll receive texts regarding the receipt, approval, and extension of an absence; benefit payment information, if applicable; and the closure or extension of a claim or leave due to your return to work.
